

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

Specifications

- HNLMS Urania / NED31
- 77 ft Bermudan Ketch
- Sailarea 305 M²
- Commissioned in 2004
- Steel Hull
- 3 Officers, 2 petty officers and 12 Trainees
- Main Operating Area North sea

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

History

- The name Urania has been derived from the Greek mythology
- Sailtraining started in 1830
- Primary target group midshipmen (apprentice officers) of the Royal Netherlands Naval College
- Present Urania is the fifth to bear that name

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

Objectives

- Sail events under challenging circumstances
- Environment fit for personnel development
- At least 70% of trainees are midshipmen
- Low costing high output
- International Solidarity
- Opportunity to improve international relations (Show the flag)

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

Concept of Operations(1)

- Sail season from March until end of October
- Realise a minimum of 170 days at sea
- Implement basic navigational training
- Experience the elements at sea

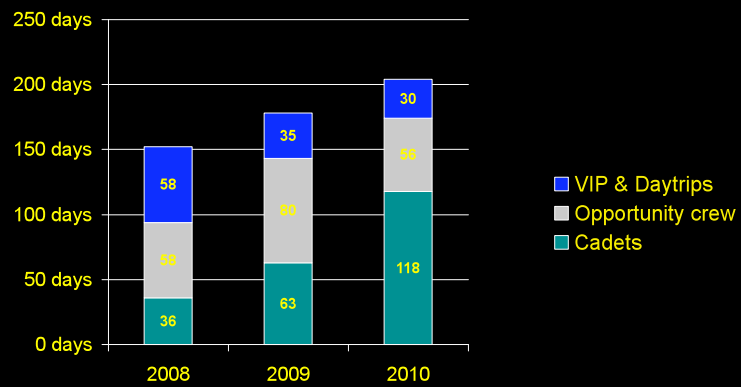

Concept of Operations(2)

- Emphasise the value of talent
- Train in leadership
- Focus on Team-building and Personnel development
- Enjoy work and live at sea with capital E

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

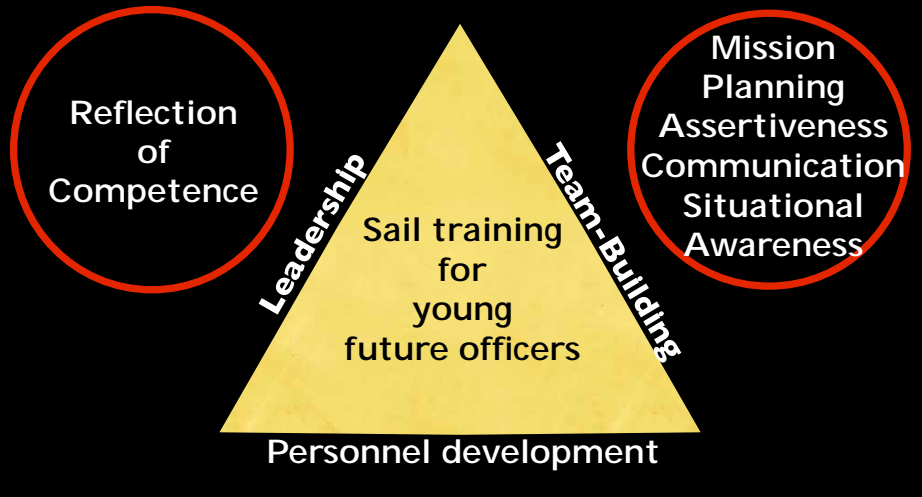

Realisation

Content

- Specifications
- History
- Objectives
- Concept of Operation
- Realisation
- Summary

Summary

Where minds compete
and talents meet

