The Tall Ships Races 2011 - Stavanger

The purpose of Sail Training International became very important for us in our communication after the 22. July:

“Sail Training International’s purpose is the development and education of young people through the sail training experience, regardless of nationality, culture, religion, gender or social background”

The Tall Ships Races 2011 - Stavanger

Should have had on of the ships as a VIP-center for our sponsors instead of building expensive facilities near the harbour. This would be good for the income for the ship, an more special for the sponsors.

The Tall Ships Races 2011 - Stavanger

More difficult to get sponsors in July than in August in Norway because of the holiday. The sponsors use this event either to treat customers, or to make a nice thing for the employees.
