

~ Sail On ~ BOARD

WHAT is it?

- ~ A great fun, outdoor sailing adventure
- ~ Experiencing hands on sailing and being at sea
- ~ An opportunity to learn about yourself and team work

WHO can do it?

- ~ There is a ship suitable for anyone and everyone regardless of age, ability, religion or nationality
- ~ No experience is necessary - the full time crew will explain everything to you
- ~ The Tall Ships Races accepts trainees from the age of 15; outside of the races, some vessels take young people from the age of 12 years old and others specialize in taking people with physical disabilities
- ~ Do your research to find the best ship suitable for you

WHERE can you do it?

- ~ On Tall Ships, for demanding work aloft and on deck
- ~ On Small Ships, to work with a small team
- ~ The annual Tall Ships Races and Regattas
- ~ Locally in your own country via your national sail training organization

WHAT will I do on board?

The vessel is its own community, so you will have an opportunity to do everything as part of a crew working as a team, this will include:

- ~ Taking part in a watch system
- ~ Hoisting sails
- ~ Climbing the mast
- ~ Navigating and steering
- ~ Cleaning and cooking

WHEN can you do it?

- ~ All over the world and all year round
- ~ The average duration of a sail training voyage is six days, but voyages can last from one day to over three weeks

HOW MUCH is it?

- ~ Prices vary according to size of vessel and length of trip - check vessel websites directly for details
- ~ Some sailing charities offer subsidized places - ask your local sail training organization for details
- ~ A limited number of subsidized bursary places are available - see website for details
- ~ Ports hosting a Tall Ships event offer subsidized trainee places to local residents - contact the port directly for more information - see our website for details

WHERE can I find out more?

- ~ Visit www.sailonboard.com for lists of Tall Ships Races and Regattas, vessels taking part and vessels advertising places available
- ~ Contact ships directly for information about dates and costs
- ~ Contact your local sail training organization for more information about sail training and local opportunities to take part in your country

WHY do it?

- ~ Sail a ship across an ocean
- ~ See the world and make new friends
- ~ Confront exciting challenges
- ~ Take personal responsibility
